

THE MORNING APPEAL.

THURSDAY.....JANUARY 9

ON THE OTHER FOOT.

A few months ago the Republican papers of Carson strenuously endeavored to create the impression that the Silver party and the Silver party only, was responsible for the Mint shortage.

These utterances were echoed by every goldbug sheet in the State, but since investigation has proven that the shortage occurred before the Silver men had aught to do with the Mint, the gold papers have maintained a studied silence on the subject and evidently do not want the thieves prosecuted. The Silver papers want no man convicted because he is a gold man, but they do want the thieves who have been plundering the Government and depositors at the Mint hunted down and punished whether they call themselves gold men or Silver men. Partisanism should not be a shield to robbers for if it is used to protect them, the ends of justice will be defeated.

The Silver party papers, so far as can be judged from what they say, do not want Mr. Jones or anybody else railroaded to prison, but in common with all good citizens, they want every man, regardless of politics, who robbed depositors and the Government, while in the Mint, convicted and punished.—Journal.

AN ANXIOUS PUBLIC.

It has been some weeks since the question of bribing witnesses was stirred up in the U. S. Court. A poor man who was used as a tool by rascals, who have made such work their regular business in this State for years, was arrested and convicted and punished. But his masters have not as yet been proceeded against.

The public are anxiously waiting to see the heads that planned and the hands that directed Brule's crime, behind the bars also. So far the big rascals have escaped, but the APPEAL believes the day of reckoning will not long be delayed.

The Appeal Mistaken.

Things are getting pretty lively between the A. P. A. and Catholics in this city. It is claimed that a young man was discharged from a leading business house in Carson, because an A. P. A., and the society is retaliating by boycotting the house.—APPEAL.

The News is requested to correct this error. No member of the A. P. A. of Carson has lost his position and that the organization is not boycotting any house for so doing is obvious. As a matter of fact the Catholics and A. P. A. of Carson are generally very good friends. There is no boycotting or throatcutting and as a rule all discussions between the opposing parties are generally pleasant ones.—News.

The APPEAL is glad to learn that it is mistaken. Carson is too small a town for rows of this character.

Here is a most remarkable statement credited to the London Times: "It seems impossible to get bimetalists to understand that there is quite a large number of us for whom a general rise of prices has no charm whatever. We like them low, and the lower the better. If they all went down to half their present figures we would rejoice, because we have nothing to sell and a great many things to buy. For those who have things to sell we do not feel any great concern." And yet some of the citizens of the United States hesitate about adopting a financial system of their own, independent of England. They naturally want lower prices. God knows they are low enough for us.

Mattie Overman in writing to Mrs. Turnell about her liaison with Brown thus lays the lash on the hypocrisy of the church:

There is no life in the religious skeleton called the church. Whoever expects strength of example from church militants will find their idols clay. It is simply a worldly corporation to teach morals and practice bestiality as a rule. The world would be better were they all laid low, their sins laid bare. Then money might clothe the needy and feed the poor, which now builds high steeples wherein to disgrace God and humanity.

No better pen picture of clerical hypocrisy was ever put in such few words.

Miss Mattie Overman acknowledges over her signature that Brown seduced her. Mrs. Cooper is urging Brown to confess. Mrs. Davidson is on the witness stand and the authorities are trying to choke off her testimony, for fear other people bigger than Brown may be involved. The mess gets stickier every time it gets stirred.

Gov. Budd of California is shaking up worthless and extravagant officials at a very lively rate.
